

1:1 Lessons Information - Learn German with Thomas

Where do the lessons take place?

All my lessons take place 100% online. This makes it easy for you to integrate your German lessons into your everyday life, no matter where you are.

The lessons take place via Google Meet. You will receive the link after your booking, just click on it and off you go.

What is a German lesson with you like?

It depends on what level you are at and what you need. The advantage of 1:1 lessons is that I can customise them to your individual needs. In general, I always prefer a practical approach. My student shall gain the confidence to speak, as fast as possible.

I offer classes for beginners, for advanced learners who need speaking practice, test preparations, Business German classes and also grammar classes on certain levels.

Feel free to email me if you would like to discuss your situation and how I can help you, in more detail.

How much does a lesson cost?

That depends on the length of the lesson (I offer 30 minutes or 60 minutes) and also on how many lessons you buy (you can buy a single class or packages of 5, 10 or 20 classes). At the end of this document, I listed the prices for all the options (scroll down).

Is there discounts on the lesson prices possible?

I do not offer discounts on my 1:1 German lessons.
However, many companies have a budget for employee training and professional development — and that can include your German lessons!

It's worth checking with your employer to see if they can cover the costs.
Of course, I can provide an invoice for the company if needed.

As an alternative, I suggest checking out my German learning platform. There, I provide valuable material adjusted to your needs that you can flexibly learn with whenever you want and wherever you want for a lower price.

How to use a lesson of a package?

You simply buy the package that you want to have.

After buying it, you receive a code that you can use to use the classes of the packages. When you then want to book a class, you go to my booking platform, do as if you book one single class. There you insert the package code. The price goes to 0 and you finish the booking.
